

2025 Counselor in Training
Application Form
Due by Wednesday May 14th, 2025
@6PM.

Job Summary

We are currently preparing for our fourteenth summer of Holydays, a day camp program for children in grades 1- grade 6. We are looking for Counselors in Training (CITs) to assist in providing supervision to ensure our campers' physical and emotional safety. CITs will work with fellow volunteers and counselors to lead the campers in recreational activities, including sports, arts, and skill-based activities. Everyone involved in the day camp will be responsible for preaching the Gospel, living as models of faith, and participating in all faith elements of the camp. Although participation in the CIT Program does not guarantee future employment at the camp, it will certainly be viewed as an asset.

Specific Qualifications

- Practicing Catholic
- Currently in Grade 8 or older (up to 16 years of age).
- Available for a minimum of 2 of the 5 full-week sessions in the summer (this does not guarantee two weeks however).
- Able to fully participate in all indoor and outdoor activities.
- Complete the Archdiocesan Screening Procedure.
- Available to work shifts Monday to Friday, between the hours of 8:00 am to 4:00 pm.

Important Dates

- May 19th: CIT Confirmation Emails Go Out
- Late May: information about CIT training sent out
- June: CIT training, date TBD
- July 7th: First Day of Camp
