Doctrinal Corner

Q: Is it possible for our child to be baptized even If we are not married?

A: Catholic parents, or Catholics married to non-Catholics, have an obligation to have their children baptized. “Parents are obliged to take care that infants are baptized in the first few weeks... and to be properly prepared for it” CIC 867 #1 Canon Law (868 # 1) further states that there should be an assurance that the children will be brought up practicing the faith. If such hope is lacking, baptism is to be delayed until such assurance is present.
