Q: Is Missing Sunday Mass a mortal sin?

A: The requirement to attend Mass on Sunday and other holy days of obligation, rooted in the 3rd Commandment and codified in the Church law (Code of Canon Law 1246-48), is a serious obligation for all Catholics. A Catholic who:

- 1) is able to attend Sunday Mass (who is not impeded by illness, etc.)
- 2) knows the seriousness of this requirement, and
- 3) nonetheless freely chooses to miss Mass, thereby commits a mortal sin (Catechism of the Catholic church # 2181).

"Lord, bless our family, make our home a place of peace and love, and help us always to follow Jesus.
Amen".
