Doctrinal Corner

Q: Can the Church change its doctrines?

A: No, the church cannot change its doctrines no matter how badly some theologians may want it or how loudly they claim it can. The doctrines of the Catholic Church are the deposits of faith revealed by Jesus Christ, taught by the apostles, and handed down in their entirety to their successors, as expressed in Scripture and Sacred tradition. However, the church may change ecclesiastical disciplines eg, celibacy, rules on the Eucharistic fast, Friday abstinence, etc.

Pancake Tuesday

Hosted by the knights of Columbus.
Taking place on February 17th from
5-7pm in the parish Hall.
All are welcome to attend.
