Doctrinal Corner

Question: What causes spiritual blindness?

Answer: Spiritual blindness is caused by sin, pride, and refusal to believe in God’s truth. Even though the Pharisees saw the miracle, their hearts remained closed. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that sin is an offense against reason, truth, and right conscience, it is a failure in genuine love for God and neighbor... CCC 1849 therefore, it darkens the intellect and weakens the will, making it harder for people to recognize God’s truth.

Reflection: Am I open to seeing Christ at work in my life or are there moments when pride, doubt, or sin make me spiritually blind?
