Doctrinal Corner

Question: Why are we too supposed to accept suffering in our lives and thus "take up our cross" and thereby follow Jesus?

Answer: Christians should not seek suffering, but when they are confronted with unavoidable suffering, it can become meaningful for them if they unite their sufferings with the sufferings of Christ: "Christ... suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps." (1Pet2:21). (618)

Jesus said, "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me" (Mk 8:34). Christians have the task of alleviating suffering in the world. Nevertheless, there will still be suffering. In faith we can accept our own suffering and share the suffering of others. In this way human suffering becomes united with the redeeming love of Christ and thus part of the divine power that changes the world for the better.

Marking 49 Years of Holy Family Parish

Last Sunday, August 23, we marked the 49th anniversary of Holy Family Parish. As we mark this special milestone, we give thanks to God for all priests, deacons, staff, volunteers, and parishioners who have been part of our parish family throughout the years. We gratefully acknowledge their help to build and strengthen our parish community, as well as those who continue to serve and share their gifts today. May the Holy Family; Jesus, Mary, and Joseph bless us always.
