Blessing for Students and Teachers

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of knowledge and for the opportunity to learn and grow. Bless all students with enthusiasm, perseverance, and a deep love for learning. Grant them clarity of mind, understanding, and the courage to face every challenge with faith and confidence. Bless the teachers, staff, and school leaders with patience, wisdom, and compassion. May their guidance inspire excellence, kindness, and a spirit of truth in all they do. Keep everyone safe in body, mind, and spirit. Help them to live in peace, respect, and mutual support. May Almighty God bless you, your families, and your friends. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Doctrinal Corner

Question: But we have Baptism, which reconciles us with God; why then do we need a special sacrament of Reconciliation?

Answer: Baptism does snatch us from the power of sin and death and brings us into the new life of the children of God, but it does not free us from human weakness and the inclination to sin. That is why we need a place where we can be reconciled with God again. That place is confession. (1425-1426)

It does not seem like a modern thing to go to confession; it can be difficult and may cost a great deal of effort at first; however, it is one of the greatest graces that we can receive repeatedly in our lives. It truly renews the soul, completely unburdens it, leaving it without the debts of the past, accepted in love, and equipped with new strength. God is merciful, and he desires nothing more earnestly than for us, to lay claim to his mercy. Someone who has gone to confession turns a clean, new page in the book of his life.
