DOCTRINAL CORNER

Question: What does the Catholic Church teach about forgiveness?

Answer: Jesus commands Christians to forgive others, especially when they have received God's mercy themselves. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches; "this outpouring of mercy cannot penetrate our hearts as long as we have not forgiven those who have trespassed against us. Love, like the Body of Christ, is indivisible; we cannot love the God we cannot see if we do not love the brother or sister we do see. In refusing to forgive our brothers and sisters, our hearts are closed and their hardness makes them impervious to the Father's merciful love; but in confessing our sins, our hearts are opened to his grace."
